THE ILLUMINATION OF FAITH

by the Mujaddid & Quṭb of our time
Sayyidī Ḥabīb 'Umar bin Ḥafīz

Foreword by
Ḥabīb 'Ubaydillāh al-Aṭṭās
& Soumayya Peqini

Translation by
'Abdullāh Ṣāliḥ

Throughout the ages, the scholars of Islām have endeavoured to preserve the Aḥādīṭ (the words, deeds and tacit approvals of the Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ) for the generations that follow, ensuring that not only the words but also the correct meanings of the Aḥādīṭ are protected. Imām Muḥammad bin Ismāʿīl Al-Bukhārī and Imām Muḥammad bin Ḥajjāj Al-Qushayrī are known to have compiled the two most authentic compilations of Aḥādīṭ, viz. Ṣaḥīḥ Bukhārī and Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim.

What you hold in your hands is another attempt by a great luminary from the Valley of Ḥaḍramawt, Ḥabīb ʿUmar bin Muḥammad bin Sālim bin Ḥafīz, to preserve the Aḥādīṭ of his great grandfather, the Beloved of Allāh, the Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ. This treatise comprises a selection of 50 Aḥādīṭ, all of which appear in the aforementioned authentic compilations, Ṣaḥīḥ Bukhārī and Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim and which are unanimously agreed to be authentic.

The noble and respected Ḥabīb envisions that these 50 Aḥādīṭ will be committed to memory to serve as a torch that brings light and life to the hearts of those seeking the knowledge of Islām. May Allāh ﷻ make this a reality and grant us all the ability to commit them to our memories and implement them practically in our lives.

Ḥadīṭ 48

عن أبي هريرة رضي الله تعالى عنه عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم قال: ((إِنَّ لِلَّهِ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ اسْمًا مِئَةً إِلَّا وَاحِدًا، مَنْ أَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ)). رواه البخاري ومسلم.

'An Abī Hurayrah raḍiyallāhu ta'ālā 'anhu 'an RasūlilLāhi ṣallalLāhu 'alayhi wa ālihi wa sallama qāl: Inna lilLāhi tis'atan wa tis'īna isman mi'atan illā wāḥidan, man aḥṣāhā dakhala Jannah. [Rawāḥul Bukhārī wa Muslim]

Abū Hurayrah (May Allāh be pleased with him) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Indeed, Allāh has 99 names – 100 less one. Whoever memorizes them will enter Paradise." [Bukhārī, Muslim]

باب في قيام الليل

قال الله تعالى - خطاباً لنبيه محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم : ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَرْءُ اللَّيْلِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا - نَضْمُهُ أَوْ انْضُ مِنْهُ قَلِيلًا - أَوْ زِدْ عَلَيْهِ وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا﴾ [سورة المزمل: ١-٤]

قال بعضهم: منذ أربعين سنة ما شئني شيء إلا طلوع الفجر وقال بعضهم: لو لا الليل ما أحببت الحياة ساعة.

فيؤلاء، نفعنا الله بهم، وجدوا فيه لذة لا تكفيها العقول، لأنهم خلوا بمولاهم في جنح الليل المظلم، مع رقة الغافلين، وتاجوه في سجودهم، وأسبلت دموعهم، ولاحث لهم الأنوار، وزُفِعَ عنهم الحجاب، فظهرت بهجاتهم. ﴿سَجَّاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِنْ أَمْرِ السُّجُودِ﴾ [سورة الفتح: ٢٩] ﴿أَوْلَيْتِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ حَتَّىٰ لَّهُمْ دَرَجَاتٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ﴾ [سورة الأنفال: ٤]

CHAPTER ON THE NIGHT PRAYER

Allāh, the Exalted, addressed His Prophet Muhammad ﷺ: "O you who are wrapped in garments! Arise at night, except for a little, half of it or subtract from it a little, or add to it, and recite the Qur'an in a measured tone." [Sūrah Al-Muzzammil, verse 1-4]

Some said: For forty years, nothing has saddened me except the rising of dawn. And some said: If it weren't for the night, I would not love life for a moment.

These people, may Allah benefit us through them, have found in it a pleasure that minds cannot comprehend, for they secluded themselves with their Lord in the dark of the night, while the heedless slept, and they spoke to Him in their prostration, their tears flowing, and lights shone upon them, and the veil was lifted from them, revealing their joy. "Their mark is on their faces from the trace of prostration." [Sūrah al-Fatḥ, verse 29]

"Those are the true believers; for them are degrees with their Lord and forgiveness and a noble provision." [Sūrah al-Anfal, verse 4]

A POEM ON THE OCCURRENCES
OF 'ISRĀ' AND MI'RĀJ

Ḥabīb 'Abū Bakr al-'Adanī

Foreword by Umm Layla

Translation by 'Abdullāh Ṣāliḥ

THIS POEM

A poetic and educational composition on the narrations of 'Isrā' and Mi'rāj in easy and appealing language.

The objective is to connect the new generation with the gatherings of Dīn and to highlight its importance in the lives of Muslims, the reason being that those who don't have such gatherings have no existence in the annals of history.

To present the occurrences of 'Isrā' and Mi'rāj in a manner that is free from wording complexities, which do not agree with the current generation because they require more explanation. To come out of the occurring tug-of-war around the gatherings of Dīn in general, and the gatherings of 'Isrā' and Mi'rāj in specific, by refraining from some of the differences regarding the customs in the gatherings.

And we seek divine guidance from Allāh ﷻ alone.

The Imām Al Muhājir Supplication Guide

Echoed by Ḥabīb ‘Umar bin Ḥafīz حفظه الله

Foreword by Umm Layla

Translated by Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ṣāliḥ

This small booklet was born out of a deep longing — a longing to stand at the blessed resting place of Imām Aḥmad ibn ‘Īsā al-Muhājir, the noble grandson of the Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, who left everything behind in pursuit of Allāh, migrating from Iraq to Ḥaḍramawt over a thousand years ago. He carried with him the trust of the Prophet’s light — and what he planted in these lands continues to blossom to this day.

For those making the ziyārah to his maqām in Ḥaḍramawt, this is a companion to help soften the heart, focus the intention, and prepare the soul for one of the most precious visits a seeker can make. And for those who have not yet reached his door, may these pages carry you there with your heart until Allāh grants you the opening.

FOREWORD

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

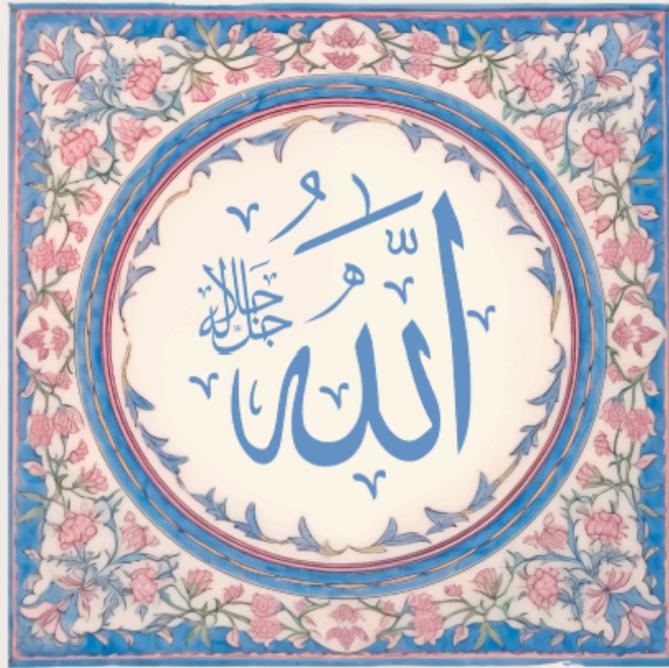

It is an honour for me to write these few words for this humble work about Tarīm — a place that changed my life and filled a space in my heart that words can hardly describe.

When I think about Tarīm, what comes to my heart is a place where the love of Allāh is alive, where people strive to obey Him sincerely, and where the hereafter takes priority over the fleeting pleasures of this world. Tarīm is special in a way that words alone cannot fully capture — it is a spiritual refuge that, for me, bridged the gap between merely knowing Islām and truly living it.

Tarīm taught me that life is meant to be simple, that true peace comes when Allāh is the One we live to please. There, I witnessed hearts that are kind, resilient, and unwavering in worship. I saw a people who have learned to decenter this world from their hearts, keeping it only in their hands.

Secrets of the Names of Allah for Healing and Fulfilling Needs

Compiled by Umm Layla

This collection is based on the prescriptions and insights of al-Ḥabīb Sa‘d al-‘Aydarūs, a saintly scholar of the Bā‘Alawī tradition known for his deep experiential knowledge of the Divine Names. In his handwritten notes and oral transmissions, Ḥabīb Sa‘d outlined specific adhkār using the Names of Allāh as remedies for spiritual, emotional, and physical struggles. Though it is difficult to trace precisely where and how he received each invocation — whether through spiritual unveiling (kashf), deep intuition, or inherited wisdom — his prescriptions have long been relied upon by those seeking healing and nearness to Allāh. They are offered here as a trust, with reverence and love.

A Tradition in Honor of Sayyidatnā Khadījah
(radiy Allāhu ‘anhā)

This Ḥaḍrah is a heartfelt tribute to Sayyidah Khadījah al-Kubrā—the first to believe, the steadfast companion of the Prophet ﷺ, and the radiant mother of this Ummah. Rooted in love and reverence, these litanies draw the soul toward her light and invite the seeker to dwell in the nearness of her noble station.

The sacred tradition of the Ḥaḍrah held on the night of the 11th traces back to Imām Aḥmad al-Miḥḍār—the saint whose qubbah rests in the mountainous valley of Daw‘ān, perched atop a rugged cliff between heaven and earth. There, where the winds whisper dhikr and the rocks remember, his light continues to shine across the ages.

This work is inspired by the miraculous story of Ḥabīb Aḥmad bin Muḥammad al-Miḥḍār, who once found sanctuary at the grave of Sayyidah Khadījah when the world turned against him. It is a reminder that the righteous are never forgotten—and that the hearts of lovers still knock upon the gates of al-Mu‘allā, yearning for nearness.

May every recitation become a key to presence, a balm for the soul, and a means of drawing near to the Beloved of the Beloved ﷺ.

Secrets of True Wealth

A Bā 'Alawī Pocket Guide
to Provision (rizq), Blessing (barakah),
and Contentment (qanā'ah)

by Ḥabīb Muḥammad bin 'Alawī al-'Aydarūs

Compiled by Umm Layla

In this powerful pocket guide, Ḥabīb Sa‘d al-‘Aydarūs unveils a concise and practical path to attaining wealth—rooted not in materialism, but in spiritual alignment with the Qur’ān and Sunnah.

Drawing from the noble Bā ‘Alawī tradition, this book gathers Qur’ānic verses, Prophetic practices, and precious teachings of the righteous—alongside special adhkār selected by Ḥabīb Sa‘d—that are known to increase provision (rizq) and unlock divine barakah.

It also offers clear warnings against actions that repel sustenance and lead to spiritual and material poverty, empowering readers to realign their lives with divine law.

Whether you are seeking financial ease, contentment, or simply a deeper trust in Allāh’s provision, this guide is a luminous companion on the path to sacred wealth.

Keys to Provision and Causes of Wealth

1 – Godfearingness (Taqwā) and Uprightness (Istiqāmah)

This is the nearest path and the best means for the facilitation of provision and the easing of every difficulty, as stated explicitly in the Noble Qur'an. Allāh Most High says:

{And whoever fears Allāh, He will make for him a way out – and will provide for him from where he does not expect...} [al-Ṭalāq: 2–3]

And He, exalted is He, also says:

{And if they had remained steadfast upon the right path, We would have given them abundant water to drink.} [al-Jinn: 16]

The meaning of uprightiness is to refrain from what you have been forbidden and to do what you have been commanded. For sins are the gateway to disbelief and the remover of blessings. It has been said:

*If you are in a blessing, then guard it well,
For sins remove the blessings bestowed.*

And you may see, dear brother, one who is wealthy and enjoying blessings while persisting in sins—but such blessings do not last long before they turn into punishment in life before death, especially in the case of major sins, such as disobedience to parents, fornication, and consuming people's wealth unjustly, and the like. We have witnessed this with our own eyes—for life itself is a school.

The scholars of Tarīm said:

“We do not only write books—we raise men and women of light.”

Their teachings spread quietly, heart to heart,
until even faraway lands felt their fragrance.

Far away in Yemen lies a valley that whispers secrets to the stars.

In its heart shines the ancient city of Tarīm—a place of gardens and healing, of Qur'ān reciters
and scholars, of saints and seekers whose light has touched the whole world.

From the prayers of Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddīq, to the cloak of welcome spread by the Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, to the wisdom of imāms who chose love over the sword—this story carries children on a journey through history, faith,
and wonder.

Sail with the people of Tarīm across oceans,
walk in their streets, and discover why travelers
still call it a lantern for the world.

This book is part of the Nūr al-Īmān Publishing
